Dear Parents and Carers

It has been another special week in school and Mrs Gray and I have had so many children coming to share positive news and examples of their great work. It has been really good to see so many children and classes enjoying the outdoors and fresh air, even more than the norm, as we have been focusing on activities and events outdoors for Children's Mental Health Week.

Christian Aid Week has once again highlighted the plight and challenges that others face around our world and we thank you for your generous donations today. We will let you know in next weeks' newsletter how much was raised. We give additional thanks Mrs Burton for organising our Big Breakfast and to all the staff who were able to welcome participating children into school early for this special event. Children enjoyed a special breakfast and we were reminded to be thankful and grateful for all we have - while also feeling proud of being able to send help to others.

Today we carried out a shortlisting process for applicants for our position of Executive Deputy Head Teacher and we are looking forward to conducting interviews soon. We look forward to sharing with you all developments over the coming weeks.

Have a lovely weekend.
