

Literacy challenges

Week beginning 8.2.21

This week our literacy challenges are based on the story,

I've suggested these follow up activities to consolidate a range of reading and writing skills previously taught in school.

Monday - Story Sequencing

Listen to our story 'Mr Wolf's Pancakes' (I have uploaded a video today).

Mr Wolf fancies some tasty pancakes but he needs help from his neighbours. Can you use the pictures I have provided to sequence the story in the correct order? If you print 4 or 6 pictures per page it will save on ink!

Tuesday - Re-telling a story

Watch another re-telling of our story 'Mr Wolf's Pancakes':

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CXQDiqHp-xM>

After listening to the story can you re-tell the story in your own words using the story sequencing pictures from yesterday? You may also like to act out the story for your family. I have provided role play story props that you may like to use for this activity.

Wednesday- Delicious Pancakes

Look carefully at the pictorial instructions I have provided and make some delicious pancakes.

Adult focus: use this practical task as an opportunity to orally rehearse sentences with your child:

1. Put in the flour.
2. Put in a egg.
3. Add a pinch of salt
4. Add the milk and mix.
5. Put some mix in a hot pan and cook.
6. Flip the pancake.
7. Remove the pancake from the pan.
8. Dust with sugar and serve.

Thursday- Pancake Review

Discuss with your grown up what you liked or disliked about your pancakes you made yesterday. Can you give yourself a star and a wish?

Something you are proud of/ liked about your pancake (It tasted yummy/ It looked delicious/ My mummy liked eating it!)

Something you would like to change/ make better next time (Add chocolate on top/ Make the pancakes bigger/ Make more!)

Challenge: write down your ideas. I've provided a template you may like to use.

Friday-Design a meal for Mr Wolf

Using the plate template, I have provided can draw a meal that you would like to make for Mr Wolf (if you would prefer you could draw your own plate on a piece of paper/ card).

I wonder what you might choose.....

(If you have a white paper plate you could draw your meal on it ready to give to Mr Wolf..... just be careful he does not eat you first!)
