Newsletter: Friday 12 May 2023

Dear Families,

The sun has finally made a welcome appearance and we have definitely made the most of it in school this week.

Year 2 had a thoroughly exciting day on Tuesday with not one, but two trips! In the morning, they visited the Islamic mosque in Newcastle to consolidate their RE learning. After a super quick lunch, Years 1 and 2 then attended a skipping festival on Tuesday afternoon with their friends from Broomhaugh First School. They were absolute superstars and so excited to tell me that they had learnt how to skip. I think we will definitely need to get the skipping ropes out at playtime to practise all of our new skills.

If that wasn't exciting enough, Year 1 had a huge shock when they entered school on Thursday morning - the eggs in the incubator were starting to hatch! Two little beaks were breaking out through the eggs' shells and the children watched eagerly, waiting to meet the new arrivals. Mr. Gardner, Lisa and Gemma were on night watch and saw our first chick hatch, eagerly chirping to his friend to join him. We will watch the chicks grow in class before they move to their permanent home on our allotment. Hopefully we will get lots of eggs to use in the kitchen!

Have a lovely weekend!
